

THE DAVID M. ABSHIRE AWARD

for the Best Paper by an International Fellow

The Board of Trustees and the Leadership of the

CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF THE PRESIDENCY & CONGRESS

are Pleased to Present the David M. Abshire Award to

Ms. Melinda Harlob Eötvös Loránd University

Presented in the District of Columbia on the Twenty-fifth of March, in the year Two-Thousand and Fifteen, for her research devoted to

Understanding Cultural Policy via Text Comparison: Analysis of the United States National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 in Connection with the Venice Charter of 1964

The paper represents a superior standard of scholarship. The well-developed thesis and compelling arguments are supported by a body of research reflecting a unique understanding of relevant events and policy options.

This award is given in recognition of excellence demonstrated as a 2014-2015 Center for the Study of the Presidency and Congress Presidential Fellow.

Maxmillian Angerholzer III
President & CEO

Jeffrey Shaffer
Director of Fellows